

Our access to ballanced coverage of world and National events is already biased toward the interests of large corporations. Please do not let average Americans be completely controlled by one organization, or we are heading out of democracy into fascism.